St. Paul's Advice to the Synod on the Family

by Dr. Geoffrey Turner

at the Hotel Phoenicia
on Wednesday 10th December at 7.00pm

RSVP (regrets only) 2124 1924

Dr Geoffrey Turner, a graduate of the Universities of Oxford, St Andrews and Warwick, is now retired and a freelance theologian but for 18 years was Head of Theology at Leeds Trinity University, where he taught mainly New Testament. For 12 years he was Secretary of the Catholic Theological Association of Great Britain, and President of the CTA from 2004 to 2006. He is now the CTA representative on the committee of the European Society for Catholic Theology (which is holding its next meeting in Malta in February). Much of his recent work has been on Paul and in 2012 he published "The Paul of Surprises: His Vision of the Christian Life" (Darton Longmann Todd).
